Dale was the first person to welcome me to the neighborhood when I bought my first home in 2011. I was single at the time and always felt comforted knowing she was right next door and always watching out for me, because she literally always was! When she was home, she had her door open and was always watching the activity outside. I eventually got married and had a baby (he's almost 6 now) and both boys grew to love her as much as I did. We had a big backyard to play in, but my son always insisted on playing out front because he knew "Miss Dale" would come to the front door to watch him, chat with him, and sometimes even bring him cookies or candy! Every year at Christmas, we'd do a massive light display in the front yard and Dale always got just as excited as we did about it. She'd stand by the front door and watch us decorate and tell us how great it looked. A few years ago she asked us to start decorating her yard too. Between the 2 of us, we lit up the entire neighborhood and it was by far my favorite part of the holiday season. Dale radiated the holiday spirit year round and was always smiling and happy whenever we'd see her. She was hands down the best neighbor I will ever have and I am forever grateful I had the pleasure of living next to her and knowing her. I'll think of her every Christmas and we will continue to light up the neighborhood in memory of her. We love you and miss you, Miss Dale!

Dale (Diz)The day you were born I became a Sister again. Together we shared a child's world....So many memories. We've shared hurts and joy.The Joy when Billy was born.....you had a baby for all of us to share!Life took us down separate paths but we always managed to stay in touch and have fun on our visits. We never lost our closeness and I am so thankful for that.My kids loved you.....and I will love and miss you until my last breath.I always thought Ed was George reincarnated.....so I guess you're in Heaven Dancing.Love...AnnGive Jackie a hug

I have lots of wonderful childhood memories of my Aunt Dale and summer visits to NJ, NY and Florida. Living on opposite coasts limited the time we spent together, of course I wish we could have spent more. You're so loved, Aunt Dale, and I will miss you very much. Xoxo

Aunt Dale as we called her was a beautiful soul to our Davis family . I always knew she had my back whether it was lending me her car for a date or saving my butt after having an out of control house party when my parents were on vacation. But more importantly she was a sweet person who always loved us regardless of any family conflicts . We will miss you aunt Dale! Love you!

I first met Dale many years ago when my sister, Jane Buckley, introduced us while she worked with Eddie. Not sure if Eddie & Dale were married then. Dale was our waitress when I was visiting Florida. She was lively, funny and a great waitress! I saw Dale many, many times over the years when visiting with Jane. She and Jane were the very best of friends. Huntington's Disease took a terrible toll on Dale. It was very sad to watch. Thankfully Jane was with her through thick and thin and took extremely good care of all her physical needs as well as everything else she needed for all these years until she entered the nursing home. She loved Dale very much and will miss her as will I. Marian Tiplado

My heart is broken as I not only lost another mother, but also a WONDERFUL loving Grandmother to my boys and a close friend. Anyone who knew Dale knows she was filled with non-stop energy, loved everyone and always ready for new adventures. Her many "fun, funny and funnier" memories with family and friends will not only be cherished by me but many others too. She was a vibrant person taken too soon by a horrible disease. She can rest in peace now, out of pain and our memories will keep her alive. Love and miss you mom!! xoxo
