Joan Weiller Hodges

DEC 30, 1934 - MAR 1, 2020

On March 1, 2020 Joan Weiller Hodges, a wonderful mother and good wife, knocked on God's door and he let her in. Joan's main goal in life since her beloved Cheatham went to God in 2010 was to continue to shepherd her eight children through their lives. Her secondary goal was to live to 100 to complete that first goal.

She had 15 years to go but her children concur that she succeeded. Joan graduated from Barry University and taught briefly, before embracing her vocation as a homemaker. She embraced a second vocation as a travel agent for 30 years. Joan was a woman of deep faith and gentle toughness. Joan lived her Catholic faith, a Dame of the Holy Sepulchre, and volunteered through last year at Our Lady of Lourdes. She never raised her voice in anger. Joan's effervescent cheeriness, laughing and playing made her good company. Joan was a lioness to her 8 children; her cubs Mary, Ann, Teresa, Julia, Clare, Joseph, Peter, and Paul. Her sister, Nancy Volpi, her children, 23 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and her friends will miss her deeply. We salute Joan "you've done good. We'll take it from here."

A visitation, rosary service and reception will be held on Wednesday, March 11th from 4:30pm-7pm at Moss Feaster Dunedin. A funeral Mass will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes in Dunedin on Thursday, March 12th at 10am with burial at Calvary Catholic Cemetery to follow.

Mary and family, I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I remember the sweet lady she was to everyone she met. I know her passing will cause a void in your heart but remember the wonderful memories of each year with her. I pray God will give you all comfort and peace during this time. RIP to a wonderful woman who was a great example to her children and many others. Love from your Southern Cousin in Brunswick.

It is with sincerity that we honor Joan's life! She is held in high regard as a dedicated mother and grandmother, as ofcourse she was a dutiful and adoring wife! She will be remembered for her kind open heart with her always pleasant and engaging spirit! We enjoyed sharing time as co-grandparents to Finnigan, and will miss her presence at family gatherings! May God welcome her gladly and give her comfort and peace now in her eternal home, where she joins her beloved Cheatham who predeceased her some years ago! Rest in peace dear Joan! B and Jim Armstrong
