Crystal Lim

SEP 9, 1984 - MAR 29, 2020

Crystal Lynne Lim, 35 of Tampa Bay, Florida, known to many as Kiki, passed away March 29th, 2020 in Clearwater, FL. Crystal was born September 9th, 1984 in Lock Haven, Pennsylvania. Her eternal optimism and gregarious personality touched the lives of everyone she met. Kiki loved to spread joy in the world through her massage and her cooking. She was an avid conversationalist, and could spend hours discussing almost any topic. She loved anime, Japan, Samurai, crocheting, and her close friends. She always wanted to focus on taking care of those she loved, and even those she never met. Her empathy knew no bounds. The ripples of her life will be forever felt by her friends, who will never forget her tenacity, wit, sarcasm, and charisma. A celebration of Kiki's life is planned for summer 2020.

Kiki was preceded in death by her father Oscar Lim. She is survived by her husband Ryan Pulliam, mother Nelia M. Lim M.D., Ph.D, her sister Iris Lim Trinh, M.D., her sister Larissa Lim, M.D., her brother Alix Lim, and many close friends.

Loved her heart. She was sweet, gentle and feisty when she needed to be. She was a good listener and loved the simple joys of life. She loved eating good food cooking good food and feeding others. She loved animals especially huskies. I recall her making the best peanut chicken sate ever on skewers. Terribly sad & gutted that she is gone. God rest her soul. Prayers for love & comfort for her family. May God dry their tears and give them strength. So sorry for your great loss she was a true friend to many. Love from Sabrina & Amanda & Cocoa our cat. She is missed 🍷❤️
