Sheri Lyn Schumann lit a candle in honor of Margaret.

Hi Mom, It hurts to know when I come home, you will no longer be with us on Earth, but now, you are not in pain and you grew a pair of wings. Bet you feel lighter than when you were a baby. Though we did not always get along, I am going to miss your smile, your wisdom, your council and your love, though I know you will be looking down on me and wanting to kick me in the butt when I do something stupid. Scientists will tell me it can not happen, but I believe when a good person dies, a new star is born. I hope you shine down on all of us so we can follow a path of goodness, love and sharing. I love you Mom, and will miss you until I come to meet you again. Sheri
