Michael, Erin and Reese and Felice. The four of us were truly packed and ready to leave on Sunday morning when we were advised by dr not to have Uncle Larry and Lynnette not to go. Lynnette has lung issues and Larry has low platelet issues which could be a health problem for both if they contacted the virus along the way. It broke my heart that I couldn't be there to say my goodbye to Olga. Know that we loved her to the sky and back and our love will go start to heaven to her and pray each day that now she is at peace and pain free. Love to all of you and pray that your lose will become more bearable as time passes Aunt Lu and Uncle Larry.

Michael: Love and sympathy to you & Erin. I appreciate and cherish all the time, effort and sacrifice you gave for your mother and especially the LOVE you have given her.... with Erin by your side all the way. It was a hardship for you and Erin, but you just kept on going. I only wish I could have done half as much for her, and I would have, under different circumstances. I will miss her very much. God bless you and Erin. God bless my sister Olga's soul.

My deepest sympathy for Felice, Michael, Erin and Reese. She's in God's arms now. To My Sister Olga: No more pain. No more sorrow. God loved you then and He loves now. You're in God's Glory now and in His loving arms. You are with Mom, Dad, both of our Children and our Brothers. We shall be together again soon. I will miss you and love you forever. God Bless your Soul.

We are saddened by the loss of our friend Olga. We were privileged to share the experience of watching our grandson grow to be the fine young man he has become. Our heartfelt condolences to Mike, Erin, & Reese, to our friend Felice, and to all Olga's family and loved ones. May we all take comfort in the memories of happy times together. Debbie & Craig
