This is a beautiful picture. I have so many great memories to look back on, especially as a child. Our family had so much fun being together with Aunt Louise and our cousins. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you right now. Sending lots of love to everyone. Rest in Peace, Aunt Louise. Until we meet again. Love, Karen

I only knew Louise for the last couple of years when I visited her weekly with Holy Communion whenever she was in Dunedin. It was a privilege. She had a deep and abiding faith that touched my life and made me better. I will miss her. Blessings to her loving family. Helen Marston
