Padrino. I have worked extremely hard to get where I am at today. I would like to think that my strength came solely from me but I know you were there every step of the way. I cannot believe you're gone and I cannot wait to meet again one day. Despite any circumstance you made the world and everyday brighter. Your humor and laugh could make any one smile. I miss seeing you. I miss driving 14 hours to spend time with you. I miss fishing with you. You were never my godfather, but instead my grandfather. I will always cherish the memories we had. I wish I had a chance to say goodbye. I will love you forever. Please watch over me and my son. I wanted him to meet you, you would of loved him he has your humor. I miss you so much. God called upon you and I know through his grace and his mercy that you are at peace. We will meet again. ❤️🙏
