Kimberly Sue, My cousin i miss you!! Thinking today about how much fun we had growing up together being the same age. The movies and shows we loved. The songs we loved "Grease 1&2" "Xanadu " just a couple.. it brings a smile to my face at memories we made "pink underwear" I'm not sure but I believe only you and I know what that ment when you would say it in a deep silly voice.. strawberry shortcake dolls..the facts of life show..the price is right..the summer when u started losing ur hair due to treatments we went to the Iowa state fair almost every nite that year and how u would joke about the rides and hoped when u got off being spun around that you would still have your hair.. sadness was close but laughing at it was truly amazing!! You are one of the most graceful person I have ever known!! A real fighter.. I miss you and know that now even more I'm gonna be seeing or hearing "pink underwear" love you cousin and friendAllison kay

To Kim's Family,I just got the sad news of Kim's passing. I worked with her for years at Hele Ellis Mom/Baby unit. I was at her wedding to Fred and at the delivery of her daughter Sarah. Kim was always full of life and I know she will be truly missed. Rest in Peace dear frend.

The last sunset we shared together my friend. A beautiful evening with a beautiful friend laughing and loving our lives, enjoying a night on the beach with our families. Your genuine and kind heart, your open handed ways, the ability to make one feel that it was just yesterday since we had last caught up and the distance between was no big thing. We are all better for having had you in our lives. Let the heavens enjoy that boisterous and contagious laugh we have all been so blessed to know and will miss so much. - Jacqueline ClairPhoto taken by Sara Flowers.
