Mimi, I miss you every day. Even now, I can still feel the warmth of your hugs. I can still imagine sitting at your table, excited for the delicious meal we are about to eat, and all the games we will stay awake playing together. (with Pops, and Uncle Mike, and Aunt Sue, and Mom and Dad). I will never forget all of the adventures you and Pops and I shared on many a summer break. Thank you for loving me. You were an incredible grandma, and I wish we had had more time together. I know now that you and Pops are reunited and we'll see you again someday!

Dear Mimi, I feel so blessed to have met you and Pops in 2018. Your beautiful smile and kind heart instantly made me feel welcome. I miss the moments of dinners at Sweet Tomatoes, playing dice, building puzzles, and listening to you tell your stories of when you lived in Jersey. These moments were simple, but they meant the world to me. Nick and I miss you very much. We promise to visit and place a rock like you taught us to.

My mother and I shared many fun and memorable times together. Some of my favorite memories of her are from when I was a toddler. She read to me every day and inspired a love of books in me. She loved animals. We frequently took long strolls together to visit the animals on the small farm near our house in Pennsauken, NJ. After my parents retired to FL, she continued to enjoy watching the wildlife that visited their lake every day. I'll never forget her feeding the seagulls in the middle of a shopping center parking lot! So many birds would flock around her, all squawking and flapping to get to get a bite to eat. Mom, thanks for being a wonderful mother to me and a wonderful grandmother to my son.

I so miss picking up the phone to discuss current events with our dear Mimi/Dot. She was the perfect mother-in-law, and a great second Mom to me. I still think of her every time I do dishes and clean cheese off of plates (use "cold" water she said). When cleaning, I remember her vinegar tips, and when doing laundry, I am thankful every time I use my Stain Stick (she gave me my first, fabulous one)! She set the bar high, and was a great example of a loving, hardworking, wife, mother and grandmother. She was always patient, calm, loving and kind. I do miss you Mimi and look forward to our reunion in Heaven!

We are so sorry to hear of Aunt Dot's passing. We have wonderful memories that we will cherish forever. We celebrated a lot of Thanksgivings together, and she always made such great appetizers... she was a lovely lady, full of Grace and class. With love and sympathy, Susan, Steve , and family.
