For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven. A time to be born and a time to die. Ecclesiastes 3:1-2 To my beloved husband Robert ❤️ I love you and I miss you terribly right now. We had so many plans and dreams for our future, our lives. God had other plans for us. He knew I needed you in my and Samantha's lives and that you would need us in your life in due time. We never imagined the years of pain and suffering you would endure all for your love for us. We needed you and you knew that. You always thought about us and spared us and shielded us from the depths of your suffering. I'll probably never understand the true meaning of your suffering and your sacrifice. Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Proverbs 3:5 I have no doubt that our daughter, our family and our friends lives have been touched by the example you set when you faced such devastating health issues. You endured so much. Your grit and tenacity, your fortitude to go over under or around any obstacles or challenges you faced is a testament to the man you were. Loving and kind, forgiving and faithful. Strong and handsome witty and resourceful. Loyal and steadfast. You fought hard and courageously with dignity. I thank God for letting me have you in my life for the time we had. Bob thank you for your unconditional love you gave to Samantha and I. I will miss you always ❤️. Until we meet again in eternity my love.....Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

I want to also say that besides the health challenges Bob faced, we had many happy and joyful days weeks and years together ❤️. He was able to see Sam grow and graduate high school and even college! He was always taking up "hobbies" and new interests to keep his mind busy. From candle making to kayak designing and building to jewelry making to denture making! I have many tangible and intangible gifts from him. I will always treasure. He remodel every room in our home at some point or another in the past 27 years. Truly a Jack of all trades. I will enjoy the fruits of his labor always. Thank you all for the support and prayers. It means more than I can say ❤️
