I knew Diane from the Commodore when she was the bartender. She was a beautiful, young, woman who displayed a gentle soul. She appeared to me to be somewhat shy which made her kindness stand out that much more. God has a gentle soul with Him now. So sorry her life was cut so short. We will not know why but her gentleness lives on with the lives she touched.

I became acquainted with Diane in Dunedin RV Resort where we were neighbors. During this brief period of time I was immediately impressed by her gentleness, kindness, and lovely smile. She was so sweet and pleasant to be around. I am immensely sad at her untimely passing. God has a new gentle angel at His side to brighten the glow of Heaven.
