There's not enough time in the world to type out how much you will always mean to me grandma, you were the most loving woman, strongest women, and the coolest grandma I could have ever had, you made all the bad days good. I spent my entire life growing with you, you watched me grow into the woman I am today and I promise you I will continue to make you proud, I now sleep in your bed grandma because it reminds me of you and makes me feel comfortable. I will never forget your love, I will always feel it inside my heart, I know wherever I go you will be looking over all your grandchildren you loved us equally, and more then ANY grandma could have ever loved. I will always be your sweet pea, you live in my heart now your soul will forever radiate within your grandchildren.

Loved me some Mary Ann. She was one of the sweetest girls I know. Her family was the best. Loved those trips to Ga with them. I am thankful that our families got to become friends. Lots of good times and loved the Friday night skating. My ❤️ is broken for y'all. I will continue praying and thinking of you. Big hugs Mrs. Vickers and to you sistas. Love y'all.
