You will be missed my brother. You left a trail of love behind. Loving you wasn't always easy, but it wasn't hard. You were tough as nails and would defend your family at the risk of putting yourself in harm's way. You were a tough guy with big mushy heart. You loved children and animals. You made a big mistake in the end but You put up a valiant fight. We held your hand and stroked your forehead and told you how much we loved you even though we were at risk. Nothing could keep us apart in the end.....not even this behemoth. You lost your fight and we are all heartbroken. I can hear little baby Camden's voice over face time asking you to wake up grandpa. I love you grandpa and you would have both been crazy about each other. We could have had another 25-30 years together. Watched everyone grow up. You waged a bet and you lost. We lost. I love you, Frank. Rest in peace my big brother. I hope we meet again someday, somehow.

You taught me there is fun in life before I was ready to hear that message.

Frank - my oldest (11 YO now) fondly remembers meeting you twice in Florida. When around children you played with them and loved them as if you were one of them - they loved you back! What a big heart you had!!! You will be missed dearly! May your soul rest in peace - Gezim and family!

Frankie, We've met just twice when I was 10. In the U.S. and in France when you came to visit us. I remember your Honda Goldwing and was very impressed. It was 45 years ago. I remember you always smiling and doing your best to please us i.e. my brother and I. Rest in Peace. Agim Tonuzi
