Pamela Lynn Strohm

As America was celebrating another year of independence, Bernard and Eve Sacks were celebrating the birth of their daughter Pam. Pamela Lynn was born in Bethesda, Maryland on July 5, 1951.

After college Pam worked as a bartender solving the problems of each client who found themselves on her barstools. Her love for talking to people started during her hairdressing days and continued as she cared for her clients as a CNA.

Her real passion was to care for rescue animals and provide a loving and healing home for them. She was never without a furry friend by her side.

Her son, Adam Phillips preceded her in death. Pam is survived by her husband, Peter Strohm of over 30 years, granddaughter, Alexis Phillips and great granddaughter, Harper Phillips.
