I worked with Bob for several years. He was a good man, fun loving, had a great laugh that could be heard throughout the repair shop. I never met them, but it was obvious that he loved his children very much and couldn't wait to go home to Michele each day. butAlthough we never socialized, I will miss him and wish that I could hear him laugh just one more time. May God bless him and give strength to those he left behind.K.J.
