Anthony Cirano

JUN 3, 1947 - SEP 6, 2021

Anthony Joseph “Punch” Cirano was born on June 3, 1947 in Philadelphia, PA to Salvatore and Eleanor (Mangani) Cirano. Named after his grandfathers (Antonio & Atillio but both called Tony) Anthony was called “Little Tony” as a kid but is mostly known as Punch since his early 20s.

Punch enlisted in the US Airforce in 1966 during the Vietnam war, was stationed at Reese Air Force Base as an aircraft jet mechanic. In 1970 he was honorably discharged with a rank of Sergeant.

After leaving the military he worked for himself as an auto mechanic specializing in 1950s-70s Jaguars. During this time his CB Handle was Tony Jaguar. Later on he worked at the family business before working at the Showboat Casino as a floor manager.

In 2014 he retired to Florida & took a part time job at Threshers stadium and the Philadelphia Phillies farm teams.

Punch loved to watch sports especially football, baseball and wrestling. He enjoyed joking with friends and playing both cards and craps. He also loved to travel (having visited all of the lower 48) as well as out of the country.

He will always be remembered as a dedicated father, stepfather, grandfather and husband.

Anthony “Punch” Cirano is predeceased by his mother, Eleanor (Mangini) Cirano, father, Salvatore Cirano, sister, Eleanor Cirano and son, Stephen Cirano.

He is survived by his wife, Annamarie; sons, Salvatore (Dawn), Anthony, Francis (Mary); daughter, Theresa (Elena); grandchildren, Michael, Alissa, Isabella, Gianna, Adriana, Sophia, Anthony III, Mary and Frankie and his extended family and friends from PA, NJ and Florida.

My memories of Punch are always of fun, laughter, and good times. I met Punch over 20 years ago and him and Anna Marie have always been so kind. I have always remembered when my father passed away. Even though Punch and Anna Marie had never met him they showed up to the service for me in my time of grief! That is something I have never forgotten and it saddens me this world has lost another God one! May Tony continue to smile and laugh while watching over all that he loved!

In 51 years I can never remember a time when Tony wasn't smiling .We shared many many hours in person, on the radio and at the OBL club.After retiring in Florida we were again fortunate to spend time with him and Anna Marie enjoying the sweet life.He has left us way too early but I know when he punched in at the Gate he was welcomed with open arms and love. Know that you are missed and loved by so so many.

Punch was the kindest person I know. He loved his wife Anna Marie and he always made you feel welcomed whenever I would come to visit. I will miss his smile and his good sense of humor.
