"Tyler man, you didn't tell us the car you traded in doesn't run brother. My boss is saying I have to come get the new car." The beginning of my first car repossession... I have never met a more powerful, yet gentle man. Hamid was able to make me laugh and smile while my new car was taken away. I haven't met an individual that could instill fear and respect so well at the same time. I know that anyone that was fortunate enough to spend time with Hamid is laughing with a tear coming down their cheek. God Bless the Saeedi family
