Tim and John,I want to send you both condolences from Mariola and I. I have such very fond memories of your dad always being the life of the party and always smiling and laughing and getting the most out of life. Well I know it is extremely painful to lose a parent, I know that you are happy that your father got to live such a long and productive life. He certainly lived life to the fullest. We will be praying for you and your family and offer a special intention at Mass for your father. Please stay in contact.Joe Tesmond
