Your dad was a friend of our families dating back to the early 50's when we all lived near the Ulmerton Road area. When my brother and I were in our pre-teen years we sold him the fishing worms so he could enjoy a good day of fishing. He was one of our favorite and best customers. Some 65 years later I enjoyed seeing him at the Largo Area Historical Society's annual Cracker Suppers along with your brother. He never seemed to age. He'll definitely be missed.
