We loved to play bridge with Pat at Beardall Senior Center. She was an excellent player but had patience for those less experienced. She stayed active till the end frequently joining the group for dinner at Shannon's after bridge. She faced death with such dignity. I know we will meet again in Heaven one day. I know her family will miss her beautiful spirit.

One of my best memories is how much Pat enjoyed playing bridge. She was one of the best partners in the group, and everyone was happy when she showed up at the table. "Have fun at your games in the hereafter. Pat, and may you have many Grand Slams in your future." Betty
