When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!
Miss me a little - but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,

Met Henry through my brother in law (Dooney) Morris Adams years ago. Enjoyed his company. Very likeable and funny. I drove from Florida back to Arkansas about 4 years ago and he called me up while I was still on the road and kept me awake my last couple hours before I got home. Great conversation between us. Surely will be missed. : 1:❤️

Mary Adams lit a candle in honor of Henry.

Uncle Henry, the life of any party, never met a stranger, the most loving & caring uncle a person could ask for. You were always there to listen and share your own life experience. I always, always without question knew that I could come to you for advice about anything. From whom am I to seek advice now? I already miss your laughs with Mom about your childhood. Rest In Peace. I'm only a drop in the bucket of people that will forever miss you. Mary

I grew up with Henry and am proud to call him a life long friend. Hadn't seen him in years but had spoke with him over the phone. Henry Adams was a very good man. We have enjoyed a lot of laughs in our younger years in life. Rest In Peace my brother. Prayers for Dooney and family. Love you Henry!!!!
