Greg, you are greatly missed. It is not the same at the gym without you. Your warm heartedness, jokes, and laughter made it worthwhile. I'm blessed to have known you. Thank you for befriending me when I moved here and didn't know a single person. Thank you for remembering Halloween was my favorite holiday. Thank you for the joke you played on me, when you pretended that I didn't tell you my daughter was having a baby and the entire time you had an adorable butterfly outfit for her. You have touched the lives of many, and not many people can do that.

My sincere condolences to the Kobin family for the loss of your beloved Greg. I enjoyed many conversations over the years at the gym and appreciated Greg's casual style and joking spirit. His caring for people in the medical field was a gift for the people he helped. Greg inspired me in many ways. I am saddened and send heartfelt prayers your way for healing, mourning hearts. Yvonne
