Agustin Sosa Camacho

FEB 28, 1949 - MAR 13, 2022

Agustino Sosa, known to his family as “Papi, Papito or Tio”, was born in Humacao, Puerto Rico before settling in Worcester, Massachusetts where he met and married, Brunilda, his wife of 52 years. Their love story began when was just 20 yrs old, and she just 16 yrs old. For him, it was love at fist sight! He would ultimately win her over with his unique brand of grouchy humor and charm. They went on to share a life filled with travel and adventures - he loved the great roadtrip! - and a home filled with endless love for their nieces and nephews.

Agustino leaves a lasting legacy as an accomplished auto body tradesman, grouchy Driver’s Ed teacher, and most importantly a faithful church Pastor and devoted husband to his beloved, Brunilda. He was a man of self sacrifice, personified what it means to be a servant leader, he was a person to rely on at any hour of the day or night, whatever the circumstances - he loved to be of service to others.

Words will always fall short in describing the lasting legacy of this humblest of men, and the many lives he impacted.

‘Paz de Cristo’, Hermano Agustino!

My Papi my Papi my Papi Life is not going to be the same without you. although it hurts SO BAD not having you here, I am at peace knowing that YOU are now in peace and no longer in pain. Our last convo when you asked how I as doing and I was going through one of my bad bone days and said ... my bones hurt and you said ME TOO MY KNEES ARE HURTING SO BAD IM ALWAYS IN PAIN broke my heart cuz my bone pain comes and goes but you were in a constant pain. So knowing you are no longer in pain makes me feel a lil better but I guess I'm just being selfish by wanting you here with me 😞 You been in my life the whole 47 years I been on this earth. I didn't even know your name was Agustin till like 4th -5th grade cuz you were Papi since I started talking..... What are my kids going to do without their Papito bringing them their lil bananas and sweets or always having SOMETHING for them 😞 .... I LOOOOOVVVEEE YOU PAPI!!!!!! KiaraKolic (he would never pronounce Khalil right lol)Jonathan Love and miss you too 🍷🍷
