Judith "JB" Yurecka

DEC 6, 1943 - AUG 3, 2022

Judith "JB" Yurecka, 78, of Clearwater, FL, passed away peacefully on August 3, 2022. She was born in Lockport, NY, to Walter and Charlotte (Bates) Barwell, who have preceded her in death, as did her sister, Marcia Barwell. She is survived by her two children, Phil Scott Yurecka and Karen (Yurecka) Blood, her daughter-in-law Bridget (Bagley) Yurecka, her son-in-law Barry E. Blood, Jr., and her two grandchildren, Zane and Dean Yurecka. JB also has left behind innumerable lifelong friends. JB believed in the motto, "Make just one someone happy, and you will be happy too," to which all of her family members and friends can attest. She will be dearly missed by everyone who knew her. Funeral services will remain private for immediate family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) in JB's name.

JB loved our dog Tebow. She loved her grandchildren and supported them in all of their endeavors- attending baseball games and musical theatre performances whenever able. She loved her Rays, Bills and Gators. She was an avid reader, forever student, and advocate of our home education lifestyle, understanding that learning can happen outside the brick and mortar institution.

What an amazing woman & friend she was to me! I went to school with her kids (& their spouses), then later in life she & I worked together in insurance & became quite close. Shared so many interests. My favorite memory I have with her was when I took her to Orlando to see her/our favorite artist Justin Timberlake in concert for her 70th birthday. We had a ball! We enjoyed many other concerts, shows, movies, lunches, happy hours together. Miss you so so much JB!
