Ann T. Adleta

MAR 16, 1957 - DEC 5, 2022

On Monday, December 5th, 2022, Ann Tracey Adleta passed away at the age of sixty-five. She is survived by her two sons, Michael T. and Timothy D. Hamer, her loving boyfriend Jim Giglio, as well as a world of adoring friends and family. Tracey was known for her wicked sense of humor, her artistic talents, and above all, her unrelenting kindness to everyone.

Born to Sue and Ed Keener in Pittsburgh, PA, Tracey was the oldest of five children. She graduated from Penn State University with a degree in business and spent her working life in the medical and research field. Her personal life was spent crafting, painting, listening to music, and taking care of her menagerie of pets. Her time on this Earth can be defined by the compassionate views and actions she took for everyone and everything around her. Her soul was one that yearned for love, humor, and joy beyond everything.

Funeral and memorial services will be postponed until after the New Year. If you would like further information about these services please contact Tracey's son Michael via his email; hamermt@gmail.com
