So many memories to share starting with Kathy meeting Roger in our kitchen and the rest is history, bowling leagues and tournaments, babysitting our children for a few years and teaching them how to tell if spaghetti is done by throwing it on the wall, if it sticks, it's done, playing cards. She was the luckiest woman when she married Roger not knowing how fortunate she was to have a loving and caring husband who was her caregiver for many years. Thank you for the memories, Kathy. We will miss you. Russ and Linda
