Jalane and Family, I am very sorry to hear of Charlie's passing. I was lucky enough to consider Charlie a dear friend who along with a few other golfers enjoyed playing golf with "The Barber Group" for almost 20 years. Charlie and I hardly ever missed a Saturday round together at Tarpon Municipal, Crescent Oaks and then at Dunedin CC. We had so many breakfasts at Eve's Diner and maybe a few too many beers after our Quality rounds of golf! Charlie will be sorely missed by the many golf acquaintances and friends he made over the years. Charlie loved his family and cared deeply about each of you. May Charlie rest in peace as he looks down on each of us with a smile and guide us down the fairway of life. With my deepest sympathies, Mark Malloy (member) of The Barber Group!
