Mrs. Aquino had a huge impact in my life. My mother passed away when I was three and my dad worked a lot. When Arvin and I became friends in fourth grade Mrs. Aquino stepped in and showed me the love of a mother. She would say that I was another son to her. I can still hear her voice saying to me "David come sit down and eat some rice and patis". There were times I would be home sick, and my dad would be working so she would come check on me. She would bring me soup and check to make sure my fever was not too high. I learned the love of a mother as I would observe her with her family. Her example was a great guide to me as I started my own family. Her legacy will carry on through my life and the lives of my kids. I know that the Lord used her so mightily in my life and I can say without a doubt that I would not be the man I am today without her. I know you are with the Lord now and I look forward to the day I can see you again. You will always be the only mom I have known. I love you. To the family: Thank you so much for all the love you showed me. I always felt welcomed and loved. I grieve for your loss and will pray for the Lord's comfort.

I will miss you my beloved sister, especially your jokes about your deformed fingers. Your stories about our other siblings hiding the earnings of our gatas ng kalabao under dried carabao manure and your LOVE LOVE LOVE! whenever we are saying goodbye after our video call.

Tita Eva's stories, jokes and most especially her cooking will be missed.. When we were able to visit her in Florida I requested for a sinigang and ate it for a week. She asked me "Hindi ka ba nag sasawa?" I answered "Nope sabaw lang sapat na sa sarap!" She laughed and promised to cook me a new batch of sinigang :). Will miss you so much especially your laugh and our video calls. Thank you for being part of my core memory just like in the movie Inside Out.

We will miss you my dear sister, especially your jokes about your deformed fingers. Likewise, our discussions about the recipies we learned from our mother. We will miss the old stories about our other siblings hiding the earnings of our gatas ng kalabaw under the carabao's dried manure for allowance. We will also miss our farewell word love love love during our video call. Rest in peace my beloved sister.
