Mom always put her children first. To watch her taking care of Dad over his last few years was truly inspiring! You should have seen the Christmas trees she and Santa decorated every Christmas Eve, after we went to bed, it was simply MAGIC to us! I think of her every day and miss her a great deal. I love you mom, and happy to know that you and dad are together again. Albert

Mom loved her family and her religion. She liked movies and was always reading a book (she was especially fond of John Grisham), she inspired me to to read and fallow current events. She was always interested in politics and was a true progressive who was fond of Joe Biden since he was a congressman and senator from Delaware, where we lived for six years. She liked pizza and Italian food and was an amazing cook, even though she gave all the credit to her mother, Mary Duckworth. She made the best spaghetti sauce I have ever tasted. I've gotten many recipes from her but they never were as good as hers. She loved family gatherings and usually had to drag dad, who always ended up enjoying himself. I miss both of them and think about them every day. She was a strict mother but always had our best interests at heart, just had to respect the sound of the wooden spoon, that she never really had to use! God bless you both and keep them close! Albert

I was at the Inn On The Pond when Bert was living here with Mary and I remember how outstanding Mary took care of Bert. They were a great couple with loving children whom I met at Berts funeral service.
