My family first met Andy and his wife Virginia, years ago at a party held by Andy's son, Andy and his wife in Katy, Texas. We instantly connected with Andy and Virginia and became lifelong friends. Every time we met, Andy showed his signature great smile, joy of life, and a penchant enjoying spirits, as in wine, together. Andy: a wonderful man, husband, father and friend. You are missed.

Although the times we spent with him were short, we were fortunate enough to learn what a kind, personable, generous gentleman he was. He will be sorely missed. May all the family find solace knowing he is now at peace. Janet and Ron

I have fond memories of Mr.Peloso! I remember meeting him for the first time! It felt like I had known him! Because that's how he made you feel! He was so kind and he made me laugh with his jokes and sense of humor! I remember he and I sharing a bottle of red while telling me stories about life in Florida. Such an honor to have known him! Rest in Peace Mr.P!

Eric and I were very fortunate to spend time with Dad & Mom Peloso when they visited Andy & Debbie in Houston. Their love for life, wicked sense of humor and "love of red wine" instantly drew us in. So much fun and laughter at the Halloween bunco parties. They welcomed us as their own. Now that Eric has preceded Dad Peloso in eternal rest, I know they are enjoying a bottle of red together. Until we meet again, Dad & Eric, I love you. Terri Foster

My grandfather made me feel very special. Every summer, he would give me an umbrella, and mimic rain with a garden hose, to allow me to act out a Singing in the Rain montage!

Andy was always a most gracious host whenever I visited Sandra before I was married, and then later when Michael & I visited Sandra & Ron in Florida, we were always invited for a cocktail & visit at Andy & Virginia's lovely home. He had some great stories to share, especially about the Navy, as Michael is also a Navy vet He will be missed!
