My late wife, Diane, and I met Virginia and Nick for the first time when we were part of the team that brought Retrouvaille to Ireland in 1996. I always regarded Virginia as a loving, kind and strong human being. She and Nick stayed at our home whilst on a short visit years later and we would see them when we again visited Ireland. Nick, I will keep you in my prayers as you go on without Virginia physically beside you. God bless you, Judy and your whole family. Michael Janisse, Canada

We offer our sincere sympathies to Nick, Judy, Jim, Nick and Brian and all your families on the passing of Virginia. We looked forward to meeting herself and Nick everytime they came to Judy and Seamus in Mullinahone. She may have been Sinead and Meibh's Grandmother but she was also Grandma to all the children that knew her in Mullinahone. What a gorgeous lady, and a privilege to have known her. Virginia, may you Rest in Peace. Bridget, Eddie Fennelly and family. Mullinahone.

Uncle Nick and family I am so sorry we can't be with you at this time. Aunt Virginia was a wonderful aunt, sister in law and our mother at the end. I remember being a little nervous of her at first but after all the years, she was one I could call and have a chat like a friend. My condolences to all of you. She will be dearly missed but maybe it is her time to have a one on one with Eileen and Danny. Love Pat

I was fortunate to meet Virginia over twenty three years ago...I was introduced to her as "Mrs. O'Shea" and was immediately told to call her "Virginia". Over time I have heard Virginia called; Mom, Grandma, Great Grandma... a friend, a pal, a confident. She kept us all together with her love and her compassion. She enjoyed the family gathering around on special occasions or just to drop by; "The door was always open". Virginia, you will be missed but always remembered in our hearts. My sincere condolences to the entire family. My heart is with you all. Norma

Dear Nick and Virginia thank for bringing Retrouvaille to Ireland in 1996. The hundreds of Couples that have attended the Retrouvaille Marriage Program in Ireland are all the better for experiencing It. On behalf of all of us Thank you. Couples learnt an Effective and Respective way to Communicate which made our Marriages better and their Children who benefited as a result. Virginia your reward is now Heavenly. You were a Very Good and Faithful Servant. Thank you for Your Example to Love. We look forward to meeting you there Lé Cunamh Dé in the future. Also to all Virginia's Children & Grandchildren you were gifted with Excellent Parents and Grandparents. Treasure those memories. Anne & Tony Dublin Ireland.
