Peggy, you brought much love and kindness into the world. I treasure the years when you and Sandy lived right across the street from us. I can see you sitting [mostly] quietly, with an attentive smile on your face and sweet, smart Zoey (aka Zober) on your lap. Perhaps, if there is an afterlife, she is sitting on your lap again as I write this. And Sandy, my heart goes out to you. You and Peggy were so well-matched, and I loved the kindness, care and love you gave to each other. To those Peggy's family: I'm sorry for your loss.

Happy memories of the years we shared living two houses away, dear Peggy. Trodding over in slippers, carrying coffee cups. Your love of animals, your kind and wise perspective on living without harming, your delicious chicken soup, your generosity and compassion, and your amazing resiliency and sense of humor. All these qualities, we will keep in our hearts. So much love and condolences to Sandy and the rest of your family for this tremendous loss. Rest in Peace, Friend.
