Margaret "Peg" Rothwell

DEC 1, 1932 - MAY 22, 2024

Margaret (Peg) Rothwell, nee Warters, 91, of Clearwater, FL, formerly of Elmira, NY, passed away on May 22, 2024, due to complications from dementia. She is survived by her son Ken Rothwell and daughter-in-law Virginia Rothwell of Melville, NY, her daughter Roxanne Zawko of Clearwater, FL, and her granddaughter Kelly Rothwell of Melville, NY. Predeceased by her husband William and her grandson Kenneth Zawko.

Peg was the first retail manager of The Summit Corp in Berlin, CT, a company founded by her husband, William Rothwell, in 1971. The company was later acquired by American Greetings Corp, where Peg continued to excel as a manager until her retirement in 1999.

She enjoyed spending time with friends, traveling, knitting, and crafting. Peg was known for her unassuming nature, talent, generosity, and for being a wonderful mother and grandmother. She will be deeply missed.

In honor of Peg's memory, the family has chosen not to hold a formal service. For those who wish to pay tribute, please donate to the Alzheimer's Association. <https://www.alz.org/>
Hopefully a cure will be found soon.

My deepest condolences to Roxie and her family. I love this picture of your Mom. It is exactly how I met her and enjoyed her company. Although they were rare occasions, I will remember that sweet smile because I see it whenever Roxie smiles. A fond memory I'll keep with me is a night I joined Roxie and Mom at the little casino. Everyone there loved her. She hit an enormous amount of free spins and as the machine spun and spun and spun, the dollars added up. Mom simply sat back and watched it go. She turned to me and said, "I have no idea what it's doing." I said, "You're winning money! Just sit back and enjoy!" She smiled and went back to calmly watching as she continued to rack up more and more free spins & cash. It was such a kick for Roxie and I. And she won 2 raffles that night! Roxie and I were having a WOW moment and Mom just shrugged with that sweet smile. May she have just as much fun flying with her Angels ❤️
