Veon, Patricia Grace

SEP 21, 1933 - SEP 24, 2024

Patricia G. Mayer, born on September 21st 1933 in Chicago was full of beauty and Grace. It was even her middle name. She was a daughter to John and Evelyn Mayer, and sister of John B. Mayer otherwise known as Uncle Jack.

She gave birth to three children, Cheryl, Terri, and Jimmy McMullan in Mississippi where she then married the love of her life, Paul L. Veon, after discovering they had the same birthday and same year. He was applying for a job at the VA which started their first conversation which became a 35 year marriage. He was a 30 year gunny and served in Korea and Vietnam, which is why we're here at Bushnell today. The last time we were here in 2006 she spoke of wanting to be next to him.

After meeting Paul, she then became a step mother to Cathy and Michael. All combined she had 25+ grandchildren and great grandchildren that we know of and counting.

She was a lover of art, she loved to watercolor and paint beautiful flowers and nature scenes even though she was allergic to outdoors, which is also why her skin was so beautiful.

Her next love was of dogs, which she had a sheltie named Jax who was born on the same day one year after Paul passed. She always mentioned he had Paul's eyes. Jax lived for 12 years and they played ball everyday.

When you asked Patti what were some of your her favorite parts of her life she would tell you girlfriends. One of which we heard a lot about located in Mississippi and they were still in contact after 60+ years her name is Jimmie Jane.

She made many friends at Stratford Courts and it was a second family to her. Her favorite activities with her friends was playing games and Sunday brunch with unlimited mimosas.
