Karen McCabe posted:

Eleanor was the meaning of unconditional love. She was my best friend and many times my stand in mother. We had so many good times and laughs together.all I can say is Judy, David,Tina and all Dave and Tina's family were her pride and joy. Everyone loved her very much. Ed and El were a great team. Michele Armstrong lit a candle in honor of Eleanor.

My name is Michelle and I was your mother's hair stylist. I loved her energy and her bubbiness. She always came in here with a smile on her face and love talking about her time at the Trop.. I will miss her dearly You and your entire family are in my thoughts and in my prayers
