Chris Jennings

JUN 11, 1969 - JUN 11, 2025

Chris Jennings, 56, passed away on June 11, 2025, in Palm Harbor, Florida, on his birthday. Born on June 11, 1969, in Portsmouth, Ohio, Chris lived a life defined by quiet strength, unwavering dedication, and deep love for his family and community.

Chris was the firstborn of Jack Jennings and Esther Parker and grew up in Sciotoville, Ohio alongside his younger brothers Scott and Richard. From an early age, Chris and his brothers were deeply involved in sports, forming bonds that would carry through a lifetime of teamwork both on and off the field.

In 1991, Chris made the move to Florida, where he began a remarkable 32-year career with Florida Electrical Service. A licensed journeyman electrician, Chris became a cornerstone of the company—not only bidding jobs but also mentoring countless apprentices. He was instrumental in guiding many through their training and licensure, always ready to teach and support those who needed a steady hand. His colleagues remember him not just as a skilled tradesman but as the “best teammate,” someone who never sought the spotlight but always stepped up when it mattered most.

Chris’s spirit was one of warmth, gentleness, and trust. Whether at work or at home, he brought people together—introducing newcomers to the group, making others feel seen and supported. He had a way of making everyone feel safe and valued. As one childhood friend recalled, “He didn’t mind doing the dirty work so others could shine... he didn’t say much, but he was the best protector someone could have.”

Although Chris did not become a father until later in life, family was always central to who he was. He played an important role in the life of his niece Jordynn before becoming a father himself. When he married Brittany Jennings and welcomed their daughter Alaina into the world, Chris found the family he had always dreamed of. His commitment to them was unshakable—whether working hard to provide for them or tackling home improvement projects with care and pride.

Obituary

Chris Jennings

JUN 11, 1969 - JUN 11, 2025

He took joy in transforming their house into a dream home with his capable hands and tireless energy.

Chris is survived by his wife Brittany Jennings; his beloved daughter Alaina Jennings; his father Jack Jennings; stepmother Jane Jennings; mother Esther Parker; brother Scott Jennings and family; stepbrother Richard Pridemore and family; and many others whose lives were touched by his kindness. He was predeceased by his stepfather Bill Parker.

To those who knew him—his brothers, coworkers at FES, friends from childhood, and especially Brittany and Alaina—Chris was more than dependable; he was devoted. He worked hard not just for success but for connection: to do well at work, support his family, buy a round at the bar for friends. He was thoughtful beyond measure—the kind of man who quietly made life better for everyone around him.

A memorial service celebrating Chris's life was held in Palm Harbor, Florida.

May his memory bring comfort to all who knew him and inspire others to live with the same humility, loyalty, and love that defined his days. A Viewing will be held on June 20, 2021, from 05:00 PM to 08:00 PM at Moss Feaster Clearwater 693 S Belcher Rd. A Memorial Service will be held on June 21, 2025, from 11:00 AM to 01:00 PM at Moss Feaster Clearwater 693 S Belcher Rd.

Chris Jennings my brother-in-law.I meet you on the basketball court when I was 16. We played basketball and ran track together in high school, little did I know our paths would cross again in 14 years later in Florida.I married your brother and you became my brother-in-law and an uncle to my two children. You were such an amazing uncle to Nikki, Bobby and Jordyn. We spent so many weekends together just hanging ou but the one memory that will always stick out is how you loved playing Just Dance with the kids and Scott. You all would move the furniture off the floor of the family room and play for hours. Oh the laughs we would have.

Chris Jennings: "The Ultimate Teammate" In school, I had no better friend than Chris. It began when we were in middle school when the powers that be didn't think either of us were smart enough to be with the advanced class. But we both knew better. Our knowledge was different than the geniuses in 8-1. Maybe we couldn't spell "epidemic", but if you were down a couple of points in any ballgame, you would want us on your team. We always found a way to win. Chris was the ultimate teammate. He never sought the spotlight, but was always willing to take the shot when it mattered most. He didn't mind doing the dirty work so others could shine. He didn't care if he got his shots or not as long as we won. Chris never complained and always added to the team chemistry. He didn't mind befriending a kid who was shy and socially awkward. And as long as I had Chris as a friend, no one ever messed with me. He didn't say much, but he was the best protector someone could have. Though I hadn't seen Chris since high school, I have a feeling those traits never left him. I bet he was an awesome protector of the people he loved. I have a feeling he didn't seek out the spotlight but when he had to step up, he did. I imagine he kept on befriending people that others overlooked. I have to believe Chris continued to be the ultimate teammate. To his family, I offer my deepest sympathy and prayers. Chris was the best, but I have a feeling you already knew that. God bless.

I can't thank you enough for taking the time to honor Chris and write this. This was so Chris and so eloquently written. I referenced what you wrote in the eulogy. I have printed it out and plan to include it with all the special keepsakes for our daughter to have when she grows up so that she will know who her daddy was and the wonderful man she came from. Thank you!

Chris was an amazing best friend. He knew how to lift anyone's spirits up. The most loving, caring person that I know. There wasn't a day that went by that he didn't have a huge smile on his face. His drive for life was infectious. I will never forget all the holidays and family events we got to cherish. All the late nights Britt and Chris and I had just the 3 of us dancing and singing. Chris and I would have singing battles! Boy did we think we could sing! He made Britt the best version of herself. I miss him so much but blessed to have so many memories with him. I love you buddy.

I remember being young playing Star Wars with Chris and Scott at our grandparents house. We would have so much fun. When we tired of playing Star Wars we would then take turns rolling down the big hill in their front yard. Chris was always up for having a good time ❤️
