Virginia Clement

NOV 27, 1951 - JUL 8, 2025

Virginia I. Clement, age 73, went over peacefully on Tuesday, July 8, 2025, at Mease Countryside Hospital in Clearwater, Florida.

She was born November 27, 1951, in St. Petersburg, Florida to Earl and Virginia Cooper. She was a 1970 graduate of St. Petersburg High School. She married Christopher Clement on February 29, 1976, on a leap year just before he was to turn thirty. She worked as a CNA and studied for a nursing career that was set back by having a special-needs son, David. All her life she was a loving caregiver and built a simple life with them in Ozona, Florida, a quaint seaside village in north Pinellas County. She and her husband, Christopher, brightened their lives with wonderful dogs, piano music, a high-privacy back yard, and the marvelous cookery she learned from her mom. She was a strong advocate for David and met with Governor Lawton Chiles to speak for special needs children and their families. Ginny was a wonderful loving sister to all of her six siblings, and they loved her so very much in return. She is survived by her son, husband, and very supportive siblings.

A Celebration of Life for Virginia will be held at her Ozona home on Sunday October 19 from 2 to 5 pm. The address is 612 Orange St. Palm Harbor, FL 34683. In lieu of flowers or other tributes, please donate to a charity for medical assistance or cancer research. Please carpool and avoid blocking others.

Please RSVP 48 hours in advance to 727-422-6162 or email <https://chris@chrisclément.com>, subject attending Virginia's event.

I met Ginny when my life was at a very low point. I had to retire from a job that I loved to take care of my husband who had Alzheimer's and could not be left alone. I asked a friend if she knew anyone that could help me. She recommended Ginny who I contacted immediately. She watched my husband for me so I could get out once in a while. After he died, Ginny and I remained very good friends. We chatted all the time, went shopping, to the gym and boating. She helped me and I helped her. I got a call from Chris about Ginny being in the hospital. I talked to her on the phone but then decided to go see her. I'm glad I went because I was able to be with Chris when she took her last breath. I will miss my dear friend, Ginny. I know she is with the angels in heaven because she was an angel on earth.

I loved my sister Ginny. We led very different lives and I respect and admire the courage and resilience with which she met all the challenges she encountered on her journey. All her happiness was in Ozona. Her smile and laughter buoyed those who knew her. Trike on, Ginny ❤️ see you on the other side.

Ginny was a very loving and cheerful addition to our family as my sister-in-law, and Chris's wife. She seemed to hold no grudges about some of the difficult parts of her life and was quick to smile and laugh at the absurd situations she experienced. Through out her long ordeal of illness she was always happy to be back home again after hospital stays and kept moving forward, appreciating her family, Chris and her dogs. She went too early but also lived a full life. We will greatly miss her.

I want to express my sincere gratitude to the medical providers at Mease Countryside Hospital, Tampa General Hospital, Florida Cancer Center, as well as her insurance through United Health Care. They all did all they could to help us deal with her illness.

I met Chris and Ginny through greyhound adoption. Ginny loved her family and opened her home to Orchid and Whiskey! She attended events and educated the public on the breed. My sincere condolences to Chris and family. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sharon

A beautiful organ piece was played at our wedding by her friend Mari. I played on my phone as she took her last breath. Well I only had to hear the first 2 chords to know it was Chant de Paix by Jean Langlais, the now deceased French composer. It is a gorgeous piece, but btw I played it too fast. It goes very slowly. <https://youtu.be/UeO1PiE8fS4> Mari you would need to buy the music. it's in a collection of his pieces called "neuf pieces."

My fondest memory of Ginny is the weekend that we went camping together. Ginny was kind, thoughtful, loving and funny.

I rented a cabin to go camping and no-one wanted to go, so Ginny came with me. I will never forget her kindness.
