I have known Carol through her wonderful daughter, Kathleen, for many years now, and through the wonderful stories Kathleen has shared about her mother and her family with me and others. I have a feeling that Kathleen's persistence, courage, faith and generosity all come from her mother, Carol. Carol has left a wonderful legacy through her children and their many contributions to making our world a kinder, more generous space. And some day I will get to the bottom of how Carol managed to not introduce peanut butter to Kathleen and her siblings!!!

I'll always remember Aunt Carol for her wit, warmth and her genuine concern for the person right in front of her. She would always ask "How are you honey" and end the conversation with "God Bless you...". She truly loved her friends, but her large family was her pride and joy - and she happily shared all of the news of her family each time I spoke to her. Her family and her faith gave her strength - I spoke to her at the end of August and that continued to be her focus even as her health declined. She, Uncle Jimmy, Aunt Kathleen and my father (Jack) shared a special bond - I'm so glad they had each other for so many wonderful years. We will always have cherished memories of laughter and fun conversations - that trait will surely live on in her family - but Aunt Carol will truly be missed.
