“ Jason was a really good friend. Very selfless, always asking if anyone needed anything. I'm gonna miss golfing with him and talking about sports and our kids. He always had a story or a joke to tell. (Most of the time inappropriate lol). It was easy to see that Justin his son, was the most important thing in the world to him. He was very proud of him especially when it came to his baseball. You'll be missed "my friend".

“ There is not much one can say at a time like this, in fact it is times like this that make you wish you would have spent more time together or let them know how much you appreciated them.

Our interaction with Jason was through business but yet the times we were together didn't feel like business. His personality, sense of humor, knowledge of the business, confidence, professionalism, and being a straight shooter made you feel more like a friend than a business acquaintance.

Jason's charisma and outgoing personality always kept your attention. He was truly animated when he talked or told a story and you just couldn't help but to listen on what he had to say. When Jason was with you, he really was with you. His undivided attention made you feel like you mattered to him.

So as we keep Jason and his son Justin in our prayers (who he talked about so much) remember to keep those fond memories of Jason in our minds to get us by over the tough days ahead. He leaves us physically but mentally he has made a huge positive impact on so many people and most of all Jason you mattered to us and many others. RIP.....

“ Jason was my Best Friend and partner in crime. He would give his shirt off his back to anyone in need, his personality was larger-than-life, and he has never met a stranger. He was THE BEST Dad and he loved my children like his own. He gave all he had to those he loved. His talent in our industry was top notch! He was one of THE BEST people I have ever met and you won't find a more genuine human being.

I love you, Jason! I feel you pushing me and cheering me on...."come on Kid, I'm fine, dry your tears!" You will never be forgotten!

“ Jason was a good friend to me and I will truly miss him. I won't get all emotional because he would have just made fun of me for doing that anyway.. Have a chilly waiting for me
