“ I remember spending time at the Robertsons as a young teen with Joan and being in awe that the big sisters allowed us to be in the same room. I so enjoyed the fun and laughter. Jean will be so missed.

“ Jean was a dear friend to me many years ago in St. Petersburg. I recall a horrific flood , where all streets including mine were waist high with water. My 4year old daughter and my sheltie swam up the street and walked to her condo, shivering, filthy tired and with only the clothes we wore. We'd been up all night as our home was filled with rushing waters.
Jean took us in, many dig included, and tucked us all into her bed without a seconds hesitation. I laughed and cried many tears with Jean. I'm so saddened by her passing. She survived hell and kept going. Unstoppable. So sorry for Bobby. I know they were best friends. Blessings to her family. Virginia R.
