“ I can't remember not knowing Jeff, we've been friends going all the way back to diapers. We played rec basketball and little league baseball, rode bikes together and went friends houses. Jeff was always there, he was my first friend. We grew up through years at OLL and CCC, we carpoled in the mornings to highschool, and worked together at Subway during the summers. He always had the best sense of humor and witty responses. After graduation and through college we stayed in touch and would hang out when I was back home. Jeff had a genuineness about him that always made him easy talk to and relatable. He was witty and had a hilarious sense of humor. He was an old soul at heart. We listened to all different kinds of music, talked about politics and history, and loved cult classic films - like the big Lebowski - one of Jeff's all time favorites. He was always open with his opinions, never afraid to speak up for what he believed in, and his kindness for people was special. I'm heartbroken to lose one of my earliest friends. He left us too early, but I know he's at peace with God in heaven. RIP man, I miss you.

“ I met jeff at university of north florida, and he ended up being one of my great friends from jacksonville. We kept in touch throughout the years, trash talking each other favorite club football teams. Great guy, gone too soon!

“ I worked with Jeff for a bit and he was such a kind man! I remember a night I had to ride my bike to work for a closing shift and hw refused to let me ride home alone in the dark and instead went out of his way to drive me and my bike home. You will be missed sir!

“ SIR, you left us way to early, we will all miss you dearly. While this may be good bye for the time being we all know we will meet again, at that time forever. Have a cold one waiting as we will probably be thirsty from our long journey. We will keep your Mother, Father, Allison and the rest of your family in our prayers and hearts.

“ There will be a great debate in Heaven and Jeff will be the one providing the best commentaries and reasoning ever. I will miss your great caring, animal loving heart and the best smartalecky comebacks ever. My thoughts and sincere prayers are with all of his family and his puppy Luna

“ I'm not even sure what to say. What can you say about a man like Jeff. He was awesome and funny. There would be times at work that he would spit something out and we would all crack up. He should have been a stand up comedian. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. Jeff you will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Jeff was the best. I first met him when we played on the Freshmen basketball team together during our first year at CCC. We referred to the team as the "Player's Club" and had such a good time. Jeff had a great sense of humor and was a wonderful person to know. He was a talker and we used to try and talk over each other endlessly. We had a great time together and he will be sadly missed. Player's only Jeff!!!
