“ We were so sorry to learn of Roger's passing. Roger was such a wonderful, pleasant, hard working man. He was the the best plumber ever and we were always happy to see him. Your family will be in our prayers. Rest in Peace Roger. You will be missed. Dave and Joyce Thomas

“ I was so shocked and saddened to read of Roger's passing! I met him and his family while I was his son's, Jason, teacher at Paul B. Stephens ESE so many years ago. I remember the night that Jason graduated and how he and I just hugged and cried together while Roger stood patiently by letting us share that special moment. The Harper family was so very good to me and Roger did multiple plumbing services at my home and would never let me pay him a dime. His sense of humor was classic! My deepest sympathies go out to his wife, Lisa and all their children. RIP Roger, you were one of a kind!

“ We will so miss Roger. Although he worked day and night, he always had time for a story or a joke, or just a moment to talk about the important things in life. He didn't mind if sometimes the joke was on him. One of the last times I saw him he reminded me of the time he came to my office to fix some plumbing. I heard he was in the waiting room, like a patient, so I came out to get him. Greeting him in front of a full waiting room, I loudly asked if he came in for the sexual dysfunction study. He turned beet red, looked around, and almost ran out the door! We laughed about that one for years.

We remember Roger as a family man, full of life and love. Our hearts go out to his family.

“ One thing about Roger is when he should up, he always showed up with a story. Whether it was about professional wrestling or something crazy about my dad or another one of their old buddies. I always enjoyed hearing them even the ones I've heard more than a couple of times. Those stories will definitely be missed and so will Roger. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Sending our deepest sympathies to you all. We lost a bright light in this world when we lost Roger, and I can only imagine your grief. In the coming days and weeks I hope the love and memories of family and friends lift you all up and remind you of fond memories and bring you joy through that shines through your pain. Bob and I send all our love and healing prayers to you.

Roger was one of the warmest people I have ever know. Always there if you needed anything. Always there with a smile. Bob and I always enjoyed his visits. The great conversation and the laughs will surely be missed. Even when we were trading war stories about our teenagers, you found a way to make me laugh through the migraines... I distinctly recall you reminding me one day they would have kids and then the joke was on them. Every time my little grandson gives my daughter a run for her money I remember those conversations with a smile. You were right friend. I reflect on all the wonderful stories we shared about our families. Ups and downs twists and turns, one thing was for sure... he loved you all so much. Those grand babies made his face light up with so much joy. Stories of some of their escapades were the source of great laughter :) Thank you all for sharing your Roger with us. We were blessed to have known him.

Heaven has a new angel, and I am betting he is already making them laugh up there. :) We're missing you already big guy... one day I am sure your warm smile will be there to greet us all on our way into those gates.

Bob and I send all of our love to Lisa and the kids, grand kids and your family. -

“ My deepest sympathy as I felt Roger was part of our family as when he would come to our home he would stay for however long it took regardless of time of day..night or day..24..7..

Food was our main topic..his grandkids and his love of his family..

His bragging of being able to EAT 32 oz of Steak at Cattlemans Restaurant with the President of Ferguson's where he got most of his plumbing...His Bbque and latest recipes and how he bought certain ingredients and how he smoked certain meats like pork ribs...

Roger would love to sit and sample all that we had cooked or baked in our home..

Roger never looked to just come in fix what was broken and leave. This was how he built his love.

He always made time to show his love and respect to my sweet David and especially when he was sick..afterwards he would always check on me..always asking me about Meier and giving me great advice...coming over any time I called and never sent me a bill....i loved Roger Harper..there is no one like him as we all know good men like him are not replaceable...

“ I remember being so excited going to spend Sundays after church at Aunt Winnie and Uncle Willies house . Roger would make,me laugh from the moment I walked in the door , always the jokester, and every one was out of love. RIP my dear cousin . you were a light on this earth and i know you are an even brighter light in Heaven.
I love you and will treasure and hold my,memories close to my heart forver .

LOVE AND PRAYERS, THE INSOFT FAMILY - March 08 at 01:29 PM

“ Daddy was known for his pranks and jokes. Everyone knew that he was a Harper and Harpers get the last word, hit, and laugh. I remember we got in a water fight in the living room. I don't remember who started it (probably him) but I had a spray bottle and he only had a water bottle. He got a few hits in but I soaked him. He couldn't admit defeat though so he grabbed the kitchen faucet nozzle and drenched the whole bar and half the living room. Thank god for tile.
